November 4-5, 2019, 8:30 am to 3:30 pm

Cost: $135 (Includes Lunch Both Days)

Join your colleagues from around the Region and Southwest to explore how Universal Design for Learning can help you create a welcoming, responsive, student-centered classroom that cultivates expert learners. This year the event features national presenters who will focus on UDL as it pertains to:

- Implementation and next steps
- Administration/Leadership
- Cultural Responsiveness

Day one will be a day of featured speaker presentations, breakout sessions, panels, and networking to support your understanding of UDL as it pertains to these three topics. Day two will be a deeper dive into the content and give you the opportunity to meet with experts to help you develop your personal implementation plans.
