About Us

The PACA program is intended to aid districts in filling Texas School Principal positions with outstanding principals who are highly trained, committed, dedicated and who have exceptional skills necessary to work with a diverse student population.

The goal of PACA is to provide individuals with a high quality certification program for Texas School Principals. Upon completion interns will receive their certification as a Texas School Principal EC-12.

The PACA program vows to continue its excellent track record in preparing, certifying, and supporting educators and principals to meet the staffing needs of the districts served within the region.
